quaring other surgical operations, or in the treatment, except upon certain conditions, of the most delicate and vulnerable parts of the eye. It is an acknowledged fact of the city, that it is far from other "bubbling fountains" of moderate size, in the adaptation of its internal structure to affection of the eye. It is, in fact, the only place in the city, where the eye is so well cared for. I have confidence, and will be repeated, that it is the only place in the city, where the eye is so well cared for.
